Coming up to the house there are two garage spots and a winding stair up to the terrace and garden that surrounds the villa. The villa is located in the area called Sierrezuela which is a short drive from the center of Fuengirola, far enough away to be quieter and more private but only 5 minutes drive to the center. There are also restaurants and shops close to the villa. Naturally the villa is equipped with WIFI, aircondition, television, washing machine, dishwasher and most other ammenities which help make the stay more comfortable.
